BLACK SWAMP QUILTERS GUILD Minutes

December 10, 2016

Breakfast at the Bowling Green Country Club started at 10:00 am

Introduction: 57 members in attendance – no new members and 1 visitor

Old Business:

A. Newsletter: Cindy Huffman is retiring from the Newsletter and Jenny Morlock volunteered to take over the duties each month of creating the newsletter.

New Business:

B. Ruth Lucius spoke about the season to think about the less fortunate and the people and families that we were able to touch with the Charity Quilt donations. Not only providing physical comfort but emotional comfort for families going through a hard time.

Donations for 2016

- 24 quilts to Cocoon
- 20 quilts to the Veterans
- 50 quilts to St. V's
- 4 quilts to Project Linus
- 50 quilts to Wood County Cancer Center

C. Retreat for 2017: Joanne Streacker said the theme will be "Paws for Quilting". Location will be in Fremont the third week of October. Price for Retreat will be a bit less than this year. More details to follow, in 2017.

D. Program Committee: Kathy Haver New challenge will be announced at the January meeting. Clue "Masterpiece"

Announcements:

- Thank you to Renee Ball for bringing the oatmeal and bread for the members with special food allergies.

Charity Quilts

Show and Tell

Gift Exchange